

ECV 2 FOOTNOTES

This heading has been refreshingly absent since VC 56, but a couple of further errors have come to light and should be noted.

Free Programme Chess (page 79).
“Guraspasvili” should have been “Guraspashvili”.

Ecila (pages 234-5) actually dates from 1957 or earlier, and was played at least once though no score of the game appears to have survived (The Birmingham Post, 9 September 1957, quoted in issue 8 of Abstract Games).
